Someone You Should Know...

Tess Lord

If you were a crayon, what color would you be? I would be the Sizzling Sunrise yellow crayon. Sunrise is my favorite time of the day because it provides a sense of optimism. Yellow is my favorite because it's a happy color that communicates cheerfulness and friendliness."

What inspires you? People who smile at strangers. Smiling at strangers is such an easy way to improve someone's day. When a stranger smiles at me, it makes me happy and inspires me to make small gestures of kindness towards my family, friends, and strangers :)

Connor Hagarty

What inspires you? This quote: "All of humanity is a garden; we are all God's flowers. We are all different, but our diversity is what makes the garden beautiful. A flower does not think of competing with the flower next to it- it just blooms. We go through warm and cool seasons until we finally reach heaven- that day when God picks us and brings us to His home. A flower's life is simple. It was made with the sole purpose of absorbing the sun's warmth and reflecting the beauty. Although we complicate our lives with anxiety and fear, we were made to live as flowers." –Anonymous

If you were a crayon, what color would you be? Honestly, I'm feeling like a sassy blue crayon right about now.

Strength for Your Day

When Question 1 is so hard you skip to Question 2 but Question 2 is based on your answer to Question 1

The difference between ordinary and extraordinary is that little extra.
