

Test Analysis

		Test Items Missed																			Total
Insufficient Information		I did not read the text thoroughly
		The information wasn't in my notes
		I studied the information but could not remember it
		I knew main ideas but needed details
		I knew the information but couldn't apply it
		I studied the wrong information
Test Anxiety		I experienced mental block
		I spent too much time daydreaming
		I was so tired I could not concentrate
		I was so hungry I could not concentrate
		I panicked
		I carelessly marked a wrong choice
Lack of Test Skills		I did not eliminate grammatically incorrect choices
		I did not choose the best choice
		I did not notice important words
		I didn't notice a double negative
		I changed a correct answer to a wrong one
		I misread the directions
		I misread the question
		I made poor use of the time provided
		I wrote poorly organized responses
		I wrote incomplete responses
Other

NAME _____ CLASS _____ TEST # _____ DATE _____

OVER →

