VITERBO CAREER PREP SERIES

FREE 2015 FALL CAREER EVENTS

Tri-campus Ugetconnected Volunteer Fair

Tuesday, Sept. 22 at 11 a.m.–4 p.m.
University of Wisconsin–La Crosse, Valhalla, Cartwright Center

Looking to enhance your resume? Connect face-to-face with over 40 community agencies that are seeking volunteers to assist with carrying out their mission. Volunteering offers you experience and broadens your network. No registration required. Contact Denise Lorenz, Viterbo’s community engagement coordinator, for more information.

MSW Information Session

Thursday, Oct. 8, 5–6:30 p.m.
Viterbo University School of Nursing building room 201

Pre-registration required—Considering pursuing a master’s degree in social work? Attend this session to learn about the process for selecting—Considering pursuing a master’s degree in social work? Attend this session to learn about the process for selecting

Human Resources Panel

Tuesday, Oct. 6 at 5–6 p.m.
Viterbo University School of Nursing building room 195

Take the guess work out of your job search; attend this panel presentation to get the inside scoop about what recruiters look for when they make hiring decisions. Regional human resource professionals from Ashley Furniture, La Crosse County, Organic Valley, and Mayo Clinic Health System Franciscan Healthcare will share information on job seekers about creating impressive resumes, dealing with online applications, preparing for professional interviews, and presenting a professional image.

Fall Career Fair

University of Wisconsin–La Crosse

Wednesday, Oct. 7 at 10 a.m.–3 p.m.
University of Wisconsin–La Crosse, Valhalla, Cartwright Center-Gunning Addition

The University of Wisconsin–La Crosse’s career services office has issued a generous invitation to Viterbo University students to participate in their Fall Career Fair. Pre-registration is not necessary. Bring resumes to distribute to employers who are recruiting for jobs and internships. A listing of participants will be posted on their website. Professional dress and demeanor is expected.

Professional Presence

Thursday, Nov. 5 at 12:30–3:30 p.m.
Viterbo University School of Nursing building room 195 and Lobby

Recruiters from regional health care facilities will be on campus to share information about new graduate nursing positions, nursing internships, and area CNA positions. Be ready to explore employment opportunities and market yourself. Dress is business casual or interview apparel.

What Can You Do With a Degree in the Humanities?

Tuesday, Oct. 13 at 7–8 p.m.
Viterbo University Murphy Center room 348 Beth Dolder-Ziek, Career Services Director

Students who major in the humanities possess the qualities most highly sought by employers: effective communication skills, creativity, critical thinking, application of knowledge to real world settings, and the ability to make ethical decisions. How do you market your skills to employers in a highly competitive market? In this presentation, appropriate for freshmen through seniors, you will learn about job possibilities and the steps you can take as a student to make yourself more marketable after graduation.

What Can You Do With a Degree in the Humanities?

Tuesday, Oct. 13 at 7–8 p.m.
Viterbo University Murphy Center room 348 Beth Dolder-Ziek, Career Services Director

Students who major in the humanities possess the qualities most highly sought by employers: effective communication skills, creativity, critical thinking, application of knowledge to real world settings, and the ability to make ethical decisions. How do you market your skills to employers in a highly competitive market? In this presentation, appropriate for freshmen through seniors, you will learn about job possibilities and the steps you can take as a student to make yourself more marketable after graduation.

Social Media: Your Personal and Professional Presence

Thursday, Oct. 15 at 4:30–5:30 p.m.
Viterbo University Reinhart Center room 130 Martha Boehm, Digital Marketing/Media Specialist

Social media isn’t just for fun anymore. In this presentation you will learn how employers use social media such as Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, LinkedIn, and Snapchat to look for prospective employees, and how your social media presence can either help or hinder your job search. Martha Boehm will talk about how to use social media, such as YouTube, to highlight your talents and showcase your work.

Internship Awareness Week

Monday–Friday, Nov. 2–6

Celebrate the success of current interns and discover internship possibilities for the future. Watch for information on events throughout the week, including presentations about internships with Disney and The Washington Center. Current interns will be showcasing their experiences throughout campus, and a session will be held for students who are considering an internship. Contact Denise Lorenz, Viterbo’s community engagement coordinator, for more information.

Speed Mock Interviewing

Tuesday, Nov. 10, 5:30–8 p.m.
Viterbo University Fine Arts Center Lobby

Pre-registration required—Practice interview skills in a speed-dating format with Viterbo alumni and local human resource professionals. Participants will have the opportunity for at least 10 mini-interviews, as well as the chance to network with area professionals. Co-sponsored with the Alumni Association. This popular event is open to the first 25 students who register, with preference given to juniors and seniors. Registration required by Friday, Nov. 6.

Free Registration

Refreshments served at all events. Go to the Career Services website at www.viterbo.edu/careers for specific free registration instructions. Call 608-796-3828, email careers@viterbo.edu, or stop by Murphy Center room 374 if you have any questions.