

Art

MAJOR @ VITERBO UNIVERSITY

10/10

Overview

The mission of the Viterbo art department is to mentor artists. As a leader in the region for visual arts, Viterbo offers degrees in traditional studio, graphic arts and new media, and art education, which prepare students for a wide range of careers as professional artists, designers, and educators. Our majors participate as artists in a wide range of cultural opportunities in the greater community.

Why Viterbo?

The Viterbo University art programs feature:

- a dedicated faculty of professional artists.
- nationally acclaimed visiting artists.
- a professional gallery with an active exhibition calendar.
- talent scholarships for art majors.
- preparation for graduate studies.
- high job placements in art, design, and art education.

Career Options

- community arts director
- filmmaker
- graduate studies
- graphic artist
- illustrator
- Web designer
- museum and gallery director
- professional artist
- art educator in K-12 or higher education

Features of the Curriculum

- Bachelor of Fine Arts in studio art with concentrations in: ceramics, drawing, graphic arts and new media, interdisciplinary studies, painting, photography, printmaking, and sculpture.
- Bachelor of Arts in studio art
- Bachelor of Arts in art education including post-baccalaureate program
- Minor in studio art

For More Information www.viterbo.edu/arts

Sherri Lisota, chair, art department sjlisota@viterbo.edu

over

Portfolio Review Days

- Saturday, Nov. 6, 2010
- Saturday, Jan. 29, 2011
- Saturday, Feb. 26, 2011*
- Friday, April 15, 2011
- Saturday, April 30, 2011

To Schedule a Portfolio Review, Contact

Sue Hauser, School of Fine Arts
Viterbo University
900 Viterbo Drive
La Crosse, WI 54601
608-796-3760
skhauser@viterbo.edu

Reviews are held in the art department, third floor of the Fine Arts Center.

What Students Should Bring

- Original examples of their best work in any medium (typically under 12 pieces).
- A digital CD-ROM of their work for our files.

*Feb. 26 is the deadline for art scholarship consideration. Acceptance to all Fine Arts programs is contingent on acceptance to Viterbo through the admission office and a successful audition or portfolio review.

