

GREG LIND MEN IN NURSING SCHOLARSHIP
At Viterbo University
La Crosse, Wisconsin
BSN Program – Male Students Only

History: Greg Lind was a graduate in 1976 from the Viterbo School of Nursing. Greg went on to receive his master's and doctorate degrees and eventually set up the Lake Serene Clinic, his own thriving practice which he runs as a nurse practitioner in Washington State. Greg and his wife Diane have two daughters, Brie and Kacie. Greg wanted to ensure that other men had the same successful experience that he had as a student in the Viterbo School of Nursing

Selection Criteria: The purpose of the Greg Lind Men in Nursing Scholarship is to help a junior or senior male student who is pursuing a nursing major. The recipient must be a full-time undergraduate student and maintain a GPA of 3.0 or higher. The selection of the recipient shall be based on the evaluation of the one-page written response to the application prompt such as: This scholarship will help me complete the nursing major by...
