Allied Health

The Division of Nursing, having admitted its first students in 1967, is the newest department of Viterbo College. Its rapidly expanding enrollment necessitated the purchase and current renovation of the former St. Wenceslaus School which will open to nursing students in the Fall of 1970. In order to make this purchase possible, Viterbo College was funded one of eight federal construction grants given to baccalaureate schools of nursing in 1968.

Among the 137 nursing students were three men. In this way, Viterbo hopes to respond to the increasing demands for men in nursing.

The District Student Nurses Association is an active organization for the student nurses to further prepare them for their profession. Each year a Miss Student Nurse is selected from this organization, and she is responsible for recruiting high school students and getting others interested in nursing. Viterbo's Student Nurse was Jeanne Swing.

Student Nurse Week was one of the main events of this year. Displays were put up in the stores to promote different aspects of nursing, such as this year's theme of "Nursing in the Armed Forces". La Crosse sponsored this year's state convention.

The Teacher Education Program has its roots in the very origin of Viterbo College. In that not-too-distant past, it was the only program offered. Although in the thirty years since the founding of Viterbo College, many other programs have been introduced, the teacher education program still claims between sixty and seventy per cent of each graduation class.

During the past thirty years more than 1000 teachers have been prepared to teach in private and public elementary and secondary schools in the United States and in several foreign countries.

The teacher education program has merited the approval of accrediting agencies and in 1963 was placed on the list of the highest accrediting agency for teacher education; namely, the National Council for the Accreditation of Teacher Education.

During the current school year, fifty-five seniors were enrolled in the course in student teaching. Innovative practices in teaching is the "key" phrase in education on all levels today. In line with these trends, the teacher education program at Viterbo is directing its attention to micro-teaching and individualized instruction. The "new" in teaching is also apparent in its in-service program for teacher graduates of Viterbo College. Two workshops—one on the Nongraded Primary and the other on Individualized Instruction—are planned for the 1970 summer session at Viterbo College.

Art

The purpose of VITERBO VIEWERS is to further an appreciation of good photography and to learn the application of its methods and techniques. Its members develop and print their own pictures—a method of learning the process by doing. The club has fun, too, simply by sharing their experiences of the world in pictures.

The Art Department is a small department—three or four artist-teachers, who are serious about their art and about their students. For the past two years, through a federal grant, the department has brought to Viterbo some of the most influential artists of our time. They have lectured, demonstrated, taught and made art. The same grant made trips to the art centers of the mid-west possible, also. The Department looks forward to the Fall of 1970 when they will be in the new Fine Arts building; all new everything with plenty of space for all—including plenty of studio space for the students.

Drama

THE THEATRE ARTS DEPARTMENT

The theatre, at its greatest, is supposed to be an experience in which the knowledge of life is extended. It is with this in mind that the Theatre Arts Department selected plays for production from the Greeks to the Absurdists.

The main objectives were to introduce students and audiences to important drama, to develop an appreciation of drama, and to promote experiences in the theatrical skills.

The Theatre Arts Department is a member of Alpha Psi Omega, the national drama fraternity. This college society sets a high standard of achievement for all who participate in college theatre.

In the fall of 1962, Viterbo College was one of the twenty colleges chosen to tour overseas installations of the U.S. Armed Forces and perform a musical program of entertainment. To respond to this award winning opportunity, a group of fourteen girls was organized. The name "Marianettes" was attached to the group (derived from Marian Hall).

The Marianettes, under the direction of Sister Arlene Laverdiere, performed before many groups in the community and the areas. Each year the group maintains its number of fourteen by replacing those who are lost through graduation. Girls are chosen by judges consisting of Marianettes and music faculty.

The Viterbo Chorale is a select choir under the direction of Sr. Cyrilla Barr, and membership is by audition only. The Chorale gives several public performances annually. Guest conductors have included Dr. Michael Cordovana and Mr. Russell Woollen. In the spring of 1969 the Chorale gave a joint concert with the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. William Yarborough, which featured the premier performance of a major work by Mr. Woollen.

This year the Chorale was invited to sing for the National Convention of the NCMEA in Atlantic City, New Jersey. The group performed in Washington, Baltimore, Detroit, and Chicago while on tour.

A concelebrated Spanish mass opened the program for the Pan American Day celebration at Viterbo College, April 10-11, 1970. The mass presented various examples of Spanish music and included a procession of Pan American flags to represent the unity of mankind; both North and South America.

The program, extending over a two day period, offered students of Viterbo College and other attending colleges a glimpse of the Spanish culture. A state department speaker plus speeches and a panel by WCLA members and students further developed the Pan American theme. The celebration was highlighted by the banquet in Marian Hall for guests and Spanish Club members. Entertainment presented during the banquet consisted of piano selections by David Mullfinger, a dance routine performed by Elizabeth Tobola and Diane Lee, WSU-EauClaire; a collection of songs by Adelaide Anderson and a skit by participating students.

Pan American Day was intended to bring together the Spanish and American cultures showing that unity is possible for mankind.

The Viterbo Sporting Club is a fairly new club on campus. The club was organized in the fall of 1967. As there were no sports on campus, many students felt the need for some type of physical activity—so now today, Viterbo College has a sporting club.

The Viterbo Sporting Club was organized not only to promote sports on campus, but also to give the girls of Viterbo College the opportunity to compete in sports with other schools. The club stresses being good at a sport, but more importantly, good sportsmanship.

The Viterbo Sporting Club offers almost every type of sport. In the fall the club co-sponsored Homecoming with the Social Life Committee. The club was responsible for organizing the pep rally and the game, which was soccer. Also, the sporting club held tryouts for cheerleaders, who cheered for Homecoming and all competitive sports.

Also in the fall, one saw girls participating in riding lessons at Ridgeview Stables.

Next, the sporting club offered a course in Judo and self-defense. There were not only Judo classes, but a Judo Team that traveled, demonstrating the gentle art of Judo.

If a girl was not interested in any of these sports, she could tryout for the volleyball or basketball teams.

In the winter Viterbo girls enjoyed either swimming in an indoor pool or they tried the thrills and spills of snow skiing. This year the club sponsored a ski trip to Alpine Valley, Elkhorn, Wisconsin. Also, the sporting club sponsored a toboggan and skating party.

In the spring, when a girl's thoughts turn to the outdoors, she could join in the fun of tennis or trail riding, or even an overnight camping trip.

The last two special events of the year that ended the sporting season of Viterbo College were the Inter-Collegiate Horse-show and the judo, dance, and gymnastic show. At this point all sporting members joined in to share their accomplishments with fellow students and faculty members.

The Judo Team was organized in 1968 by Linda Price. During that school term the team, consisting of ten to twelve members traveled to neighboring states for demonstrations. During Easter the team spent several days in the St. Paul area. In April of '69, the first judo tournament was held. During the 1969-70 school year the judo team was called upon to give many demonstrations, again traveling to several states. Classes are open to all students to learn a combination of self defense and judo. Belt ranks are white, yellow, green, brown and black.

It is the sincere desire of the staff for this paper to become a genuine work of the whole college community.

Touchstone

TOUCHSTONE is the literary magazine on campus. It encompassed the visual art of photography with the literary art forms of short stories, essays, and poems. Two TOUCHSTONES were issued: one during the Christmas holiday season, and the other during late spring.

A. Fell and Sr. Mary Paul at work on TOUCHSTONE.

Cameo

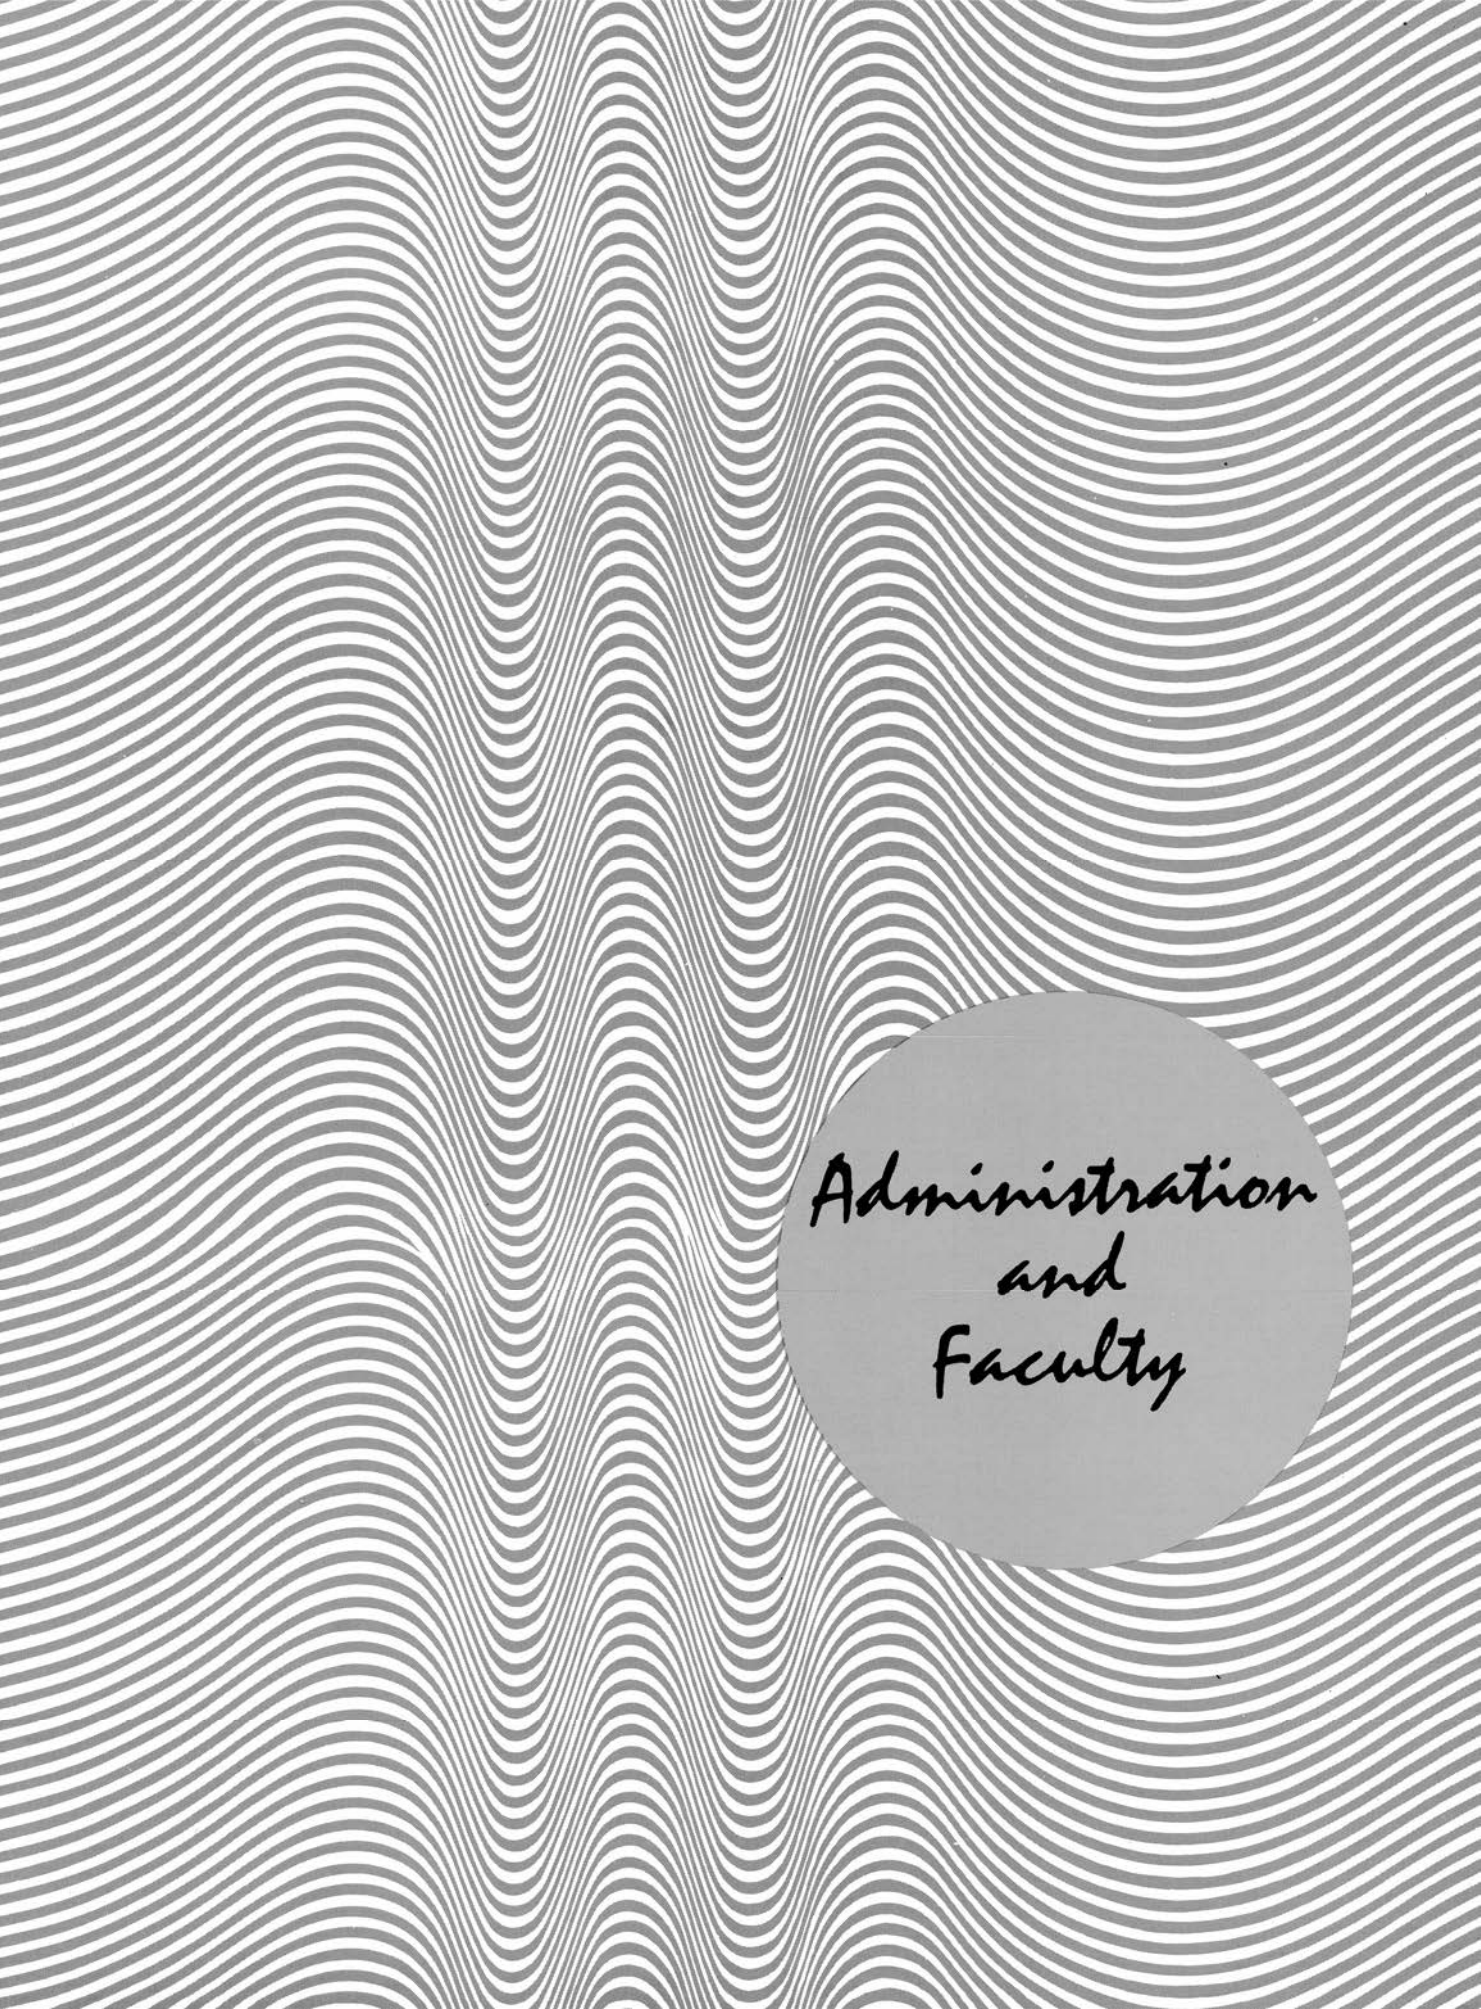

CAMEO was a newly organized project in the Publications Division. Plans to have a yearbook began during the spring of 1969, and now the book has finally become a member of the Publications Division. The name CAMEO had been submitted by Pat Rickert in a contest sponsored by the staff to all members of the college. The name was not submitted nor chosen to remain; this is a decision left to future staffs. But it was felt that CAMEO best represents "The Cameos of Memory."

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES AND COLLEGES is a national organization providing a basis of recognition to college students. Recognition by Who's Who means that the student was, first officially recommended from the university or college she attends, and then, accepted by the organization. Nominations are submitted annually by four-year degree granting institutions. Selection of nominees is conducted by campus committees and usually involves student-faculty-administration participation. Students who have been accepted for recognition are notified directly by Who's Who. Each student named to Who's Who receives a certificate of recognition awarded by the organization and presented at the school, and the benefits of the Student Placement Service of the organization. In addition to these services, Who's Whos is designed to render greater, though less conspicuous service:

As a goal to inspire greater effort in those who may not otherwise perform to the best of their ability.

As a reminder that time must be used intelligently to bring the best results from one's college experience.

As a means of compensation for outstanding effort and achievement.

As a standard of measurement for students comparable to other recognized scholastic and service organizations.

Viterbo placed five students on Who's Who for the 1969-1970 year. They were: Barbara Dombek, Susan Eulberg, Betty Meehan, Marilyn Osterhaus, and Linda Price.

Marlene, and Miss Janet Linderbaum. R. A.'s for the year were Kris Kamp, Betty Strigel, Pam Wackett, Greta Zorn, Ida Kuennon, Jan Kuhl, Betty Meehan, Mary Lou Murphy, Jane Bucheit, and Dorothy Hall.

SPLIT PERSONALITY!

A girl could get lost in here!

Way back in September when the idea of a yearbook was introduced, a name had to be given it. The college community had a chance to give a name for the book on their order blank sheets. From among the 50 replies received, Pat Rickert's suggestion CAMEO was chosen to become the name of Viterbo's first yearbook. Pat took the name CAMEO from a poem that she had read and thought that it would be a very good poem to reproduce for the yearbook. She stated, "This poem sort of signifies the treasure this yearbook might be to the seniors and the entire body of people involved in this college. As a senior and a Senior Class Rep., I myself would think of a yearbook as a treasure of memories."

The following poem was taken from the book MOMENTS OF AWARENESS.

MY CAMEOS OF MEMORY

By HELEN LOWRIE MARSHALL

These are my treasures kept apart,
Cradled in velvet in my heart,
Graven profiles, picture-clear,
Perfect moments, priceless-dear,
Etched, in ageless time to be
My cameos of memory.

The hours I have spent with you,
The tender times, the fun times, too.
The summer roses and the rain,
The laughter and the precious pain
of loving you—your loving me—
My cameos of memory.

These are my wealth, my warmth, my light,
I keep them close—dream all the night.
With finger-tips of heart and mind
I trace each profile there defined—
These treasures none can take from me—
My cameos of memory.

And from the CAMEO of memory
we face the future . . .

tomorrow . . .

Epilogue

My first thought upon writing this page is to take a deep breath and say to myself: thank goodness. Somehow I am a little saddened because I realize that this book is almost finished and the dream that Viterbo will have a yearbook is no longer a dream. It's now a reality with this book in your hands. The termination of that dream and its evolution was almost the near destruction of its editor. My destruction came as a result of my making, I, a self-made-individual, tried to become a perfectionist—longing to understand everyone and everything around me. Man's complexities says that this can never be accomplished. But it was a dream of this individual to express in this book so that all could remember and understand, when viewed two decades hence—the time . . . the thoughts of that time . . . the people of that time . . . 1969-1970 at Viterbo College. Going farther and farther into the year I began to realize my mistake . . . understanding was an impossibility. It was too late . . . to gain back friendship from those that I had cut out of my mind . . . to gain back the time that I took away from my classes to make deadlines and do all the tiny last minute preparations that one could overlook but which one could not function . . . to turn back and glide into comfort of non-action. But from the days and months of toil I came to realize that THERE IS NO REALITY EXCEPT IN ACTION. An idea, a dream, and from that came my desire—out of that desire I now present to you CAMEO 1970.

I must express my thanks to the following people—my staff, Bonnie, Althea, Mary, Marilyn, Jean, and Kris, who offered me the greatest assistance; Mr. Geiger, S. Justille, S. Ladonna, S. Carlene, S. Marlene, S. Paula Marie, Mr. Host, and Mr. Harvey Wiersgalla—a most reliable photographer. Their gesture of interest and friendship can never be fully thanked, but I do appreciate it very much. My thanks also are extended to Mr. George Culver, Jr., whose thoughts were somewhat elaborated on on this page, and to Helen Marshall for her artistic help—MY CAMEOS OF MEMORY.

Lastly, I'd like to say that CAMEO 1970 didn't dedicate its pages to any one person, but it is being dedicated to future staffs of a yearbook. This final page doesn't signify the end, but the beginning. And so from the Cameos of Memory we face the future . . .

Doris Haldera
